The Pastor's Message

Beloved brothers and sisters in Christ,

As Foochow Methodist Church enter its 129th year of history, we stand at an important threshold. Like Israel on the edge of the Promised Land, we are entering a new season—not only in our church life, but also in our neighbourhood, with new families moving into the BTO opposite our church. God is doing something new among us, and He is calling us to be ready.

For the next three months, I invite us as one church family to journey together through the Book of Numbers, both in <Daily Manna Together> and weekly sermons. The Book of Numbers reminds us that the wilderness is not wasted. It is where God forms His people—teaching them obedience, dependence, holiness, and trust—so that they may inherit His promises and become a blessing to others.

Israel's failure was not lack of promise, but lack of preparation. God desires more than our activity; He desires our hearts. As we study Numbers, let us allow the Holy Spirit to search us: Are we walking in faith or fear? In gratitude or complaint? In obedience or resistance? This season of Scripture is an invitation to grow—personally and corporately—so that we may truly be God's people for God's purposes.

Our new neighbours are not here incidentally; they are a divine assignment. God has placed us here for such a time as this. But before we can bless others, we must first be shaped by God's Word. As we dwell daily in Scripture and gather weekly to hear it proclaimed, may God renew our minds, strengthen our faith, and align our hearts with His mission.

Church, let us walk this journey together. May God prepare us, mature us, and send us out—to inherit His promises and to be a blessing to many, for His glory alone.

Introduction To The Book of Numbers

The Book of Numbers records Israel's journey from Mount Sinai to the edge of the Promised Land. Its title comes from the two censuses (numberings) of Israel, one at the beginning and one near the end, showing a transition from an unprepared generation to a prepared one.

Numbers is not just a travel log—it is a spiritual story of faith, failure, discipline, and growth. It reveals how God remains faithful to His promises even when His people struggle to trust Him. The wilderness becomes a place of testing, training, and transformation.

Key themes:

- God's holiness and order
- Human unbelief and rebellion
- Divine discipline and mercy
- Leadership development
- Preparation for God's promise

Growing Through the Wilderness:

Numbers powerfully illustrates that the wilderness is not wasted time.

- The wilderness reveals the heart: Fear, faith, obedience, and rebellion all surface.
- The wilderness forms maturity: God shapes leaders, deepens dependence, and teaches obedience.
- The wilderness separates generations: One generation dies in unbelief; another rises in faith.
- The wilderness prepares for promise: God uses trials to prepare His people for blessing.

Just as Israel had to grow before entering Canaan, believers today often walk through “wilderness seasons” where God is:

- Teaching trust
- Correcting attitudes
- Developing perseverance
- Preparing us for His promises

How To Practice Daily Devotions

God is a personal Spirit, and “Heavenly Father” is more than just a title—it reflects the deep reality that He is our loving and caring Father. Through the spiritual discipline of daily devotions, we come to know, communicate, and walk closely with Him.

Daily devotions involve setting aside specific times to draw near to God, to know Him, and to align with His will. Through reading the Bible, we come to understand His intentions, and we can respond to God in prayer and reflection. By dedicating time each day to read the Bible, pray, and meditate on God’s word, we allow God’s presence into our lives to guide us. Jesus often withdrew from the crowd and His disciples to commune with the Father in solitude, gaining strength and direction to fulfil His mission.

I. The Purpose of Daily Devotions

- a. To draw closer to God and communicate with Him. In these end times, God calls us to be awake and alert, using His Word to sustain us.
“I rise before dawn and cry for help; I have put my hope in your word. My eyes stay open through the watches of the night, that I may meditate on your promises.” (Psalm 119:147-148, NIV)
- b. To receive guidance and light for our lives. “Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105, NIV)
- c. To renew our minds to live out our new life in Christ.
By studying the scriptures, God’s servants are thoroughly equipped for every good work and taught to live righteously.
“All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting, and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.”
(2 Timothy 3:16-17, NIV)

2. Preparation for Daily Devotions

- Time: Select a time when you can be undisturbed and alone, whether in the morning or in the evening for reflection.
- Place: Find a quiet, distraction-free space where you can focus.
- Materials: Have your Bible, a notebook for recording reflections, and a pen ready.
- Mindset: Approach God with a calm and open heart, prepared to hear from Him and encounter Him.

3. Spiritual Discipline

Daily devotions as a spiritual discipline is not meant to be rigid or legalistic, just as our relationships with family members are not meant to feel burdensome. Time spent with our Heavenly Father should feel genuine and heartfelt. For those starting out, simple and practical methods can help cultivate meaningful spiritual habits and deepen our relationship with our Heavenly Father.

Numbers 11

God's people begin to complain in the wilderness, revealing hearts that doubt His goodness and grow dissatisfied with His provision. Their cravings show how quickly faith can weaken when circumstances become uncomfortable. Yet God also provides help for Moses and shows that He is both just and merciful. Growth in Christ includes learning to be content, trusting God's wisdom, and recognising how unbelief can distort our desires.

Reflection Questions:

- What do your complaints reveal about what you are trusting, or not trusting, about God?
- Where is God inviting you to grow in contentment and gratitude?

Reflection

Application &
Prayer

Numbers 12

Jealousy and pride rise within leadership, threatening the unity of God's people. God intervenes to correct the wrong and to affirm His chosen servant. ### Reflection Questions:

- Are there hidden attitudes of comparison, jealousy, or pride affecting your relationships?
- How can you grow in humility and honour others in the body of Christ?

Reflection

Romans 5:1-11

Believers have peace with God through Christ and can rejoice even in suffering, because trials produce endurance and hope. God's love is not uncertain; it has already been demonstrated through Christ's death for sinners. Growth in faith means learning to rest in God's love and to see hardships through the lens of hope and redemption.

Reflection Questions:

- How does knowing you have peace with God shape how you face difficulties?
- Where do you need to grow in trusting that God is using suffering to deepen your hope?

Reflection

Application &
Prayer

Ephesians 2

God saves not by human effort but by grace, raising people from spiritual death into new life. This grace also breaks down divisions, creating one united people in Christ. ## Numbers 13

God's people stand at the edge of promise, but their perspective is tested. The land is good, yet fear begins to shape their interpretation of reality. Growth in faith requires learning to see circumstances through God's promises rather than through anxiety and self-reliance.

Reflection Questions:

- When you face challenges, do you tend to focus more on God's promises or on the "giants" in front of you?
- What would it look like for you to respond in faith instead of fear in a current situation?

Reflection

Application &
Prayer

Numbers 14

Fear turns into rebellion as the people reject God's promise and long to return to slavery. Their unbelief is serious, and there are consequences, yet God also shows mercy through intercession and continues His covenant purposes. Growth in Christ involves learning from failure, repenting of unbelief, and choosing to trust God's character even after we stumble.

Reflection Questions:

- Are there areas where you are tempted to “turn back” rather than trust God forward?
- How does God's mercy toward His people encourage you to repent and keep walking with Him?

Reflection

Application &
Prayer

Numbers 15

After judgment, God gives instructions for worship, offerings, and daily obedience, showing that failure does not end the relationship. God continues to provide a way for His people to live faithfully and remember His commands. Growth is often shown in renewed obedience, learning to walk steadily with God after spiritual setbacks.

Reflection Questions:

- When you fail spiritually, do you withdraw from God or return to Him in renewed obedience?
- What practices can help you remember God's Word and stay faithful day by day?"

Reflection

Application &
Prayer

Luke 1:46-55

Reflection Questions:

- How does worship help reshape your heart when you feel uncertain or afraid?
- What past mercies of God can you remember and praise Him for today?

Hebrews 2:9-18

Jesus shares fully in human weakness and suffering in order to save His people. Through His suffering and death, He defeats the power of death and becomes a merciful and faithful High Priest who helps those who are tempted. Growth in Christ is grounded in knowing that Jesus understands our struggles and gives grace to persevere.

Reflection Questions:

- How does knowing Jesus understands suffering and temptation strengthen your faith?

GROWING THROUGH THE WILDERNESS: FORMED BY GOD, PREPARED FOR HIS PROMISE NUMBERS SERMON SERIES

The book of Numbers reminds us that the wilderness is not a place to remain, but a place where God shapes His people. In the wilderness, we learn commitment, holiness, unity, and obedience; we experience grace even in discipline, and grow in faith amid weakness. May we not be mere observers, but willing to be shaped, living out the identity of God's people as we prepare to enter His promises.
